Beschreibung

The highlights of this two-part route are the eponymous 'Virgin of the rocks' and a 16 m suspension bridge. A 650m steel cable spans the Große and Kleine Gamswiesenspitze (2488 m and 2454 m), whose summits provide super panoramic views to the mountains in East Tyrol.

Equipment: Complete via ferrata equipment and helmet (in spring possibly even crampons, ice picks and an additional safety rope)
